ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT*Every Thursday and First Friday of the month*

Jesus waits for us in the Blessed Sacrament. He waits for us in this Sacrament of Love. He waits for our little acts of faith, for our repentance, for the thanksgiving, love and charity that we can offer Him while we are with Him for one hour.

ADORACION DEL SANTISIMO SACRAMENTOTodos los Jueves y El Primer Viernes del mes*

Jesús nos espera en el Santísimo Sacramento. Él nos espera en este Sacramento de Amor, Él espera nuestro pequeños actos de fe, por nuestro arrepentimiento, agradecimiento, amor, y caridad que podamos ofrecer mientras estamos una hora con Él. Su Divina Majestad.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time (B) Mk 10:46-52

"What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see."

Today, we reflect on a man who, in his misfortune, finds true happiness through Jesus Christ. This man suffers from two significant shortcomings: blindness and the inability to earn a living, which forces him to beg. He needs help and he is sitting by the roadside, outside Jericho, where a lot of people pass by. In this moment of luck for him, it is Jesus who walks by, accompanied by his disciples and others. The blind man likely heard of Jesus' miracles and, upon realizing Jesus is near, begins to cry out, "Son of David, have pity on me." (Mk 10:47). For those with Jesus, his cries seem annoying, they do not think of his sad personal situation, as they are focused on themselves. But Jesus does care about the beggar and calls for him to be brought over. Immediately, the blind man stands before the Son of David and a dialogue ensues: Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." (Mk 10:51). Jesus grants him not only physical sight but, most importantly, spiritual vision —faith, which is the internal sight of God. St. Clement of Alexandria once said, "Let us put an end to the oblivion of the truth; let us unclasp our heart and dispel the ignorance and darkness that, as a cloud, darkens our eyes, and let us contemplate he who is really God."

Many times, we complain and say: —I do not know how to pray. The blind man from the Gospel serves as an example: he persistently calls upon Jesus and expresses all that he needs in just a few words. If we lack faith, let's say: "Lord, increase my faith." If we have family members or friends who have ceased to practice their Catholic faith, let's pray: "Lord Jesus, help them to see." Is faith really that important? When compared to physical sight, we might realize how crucial it is. While the condition of the blind man is sad, the plight of an unbeliever is far more distressing. Let us tell them: "The Master calls you; present your need, and Jesus will generously respond."
